Online Certificate Course on International Environmental Law

International Environmental Law is one of the most dynamic fields of International Law and is an essential part of today's global legal regime. Much of the modern body of environmental law has been developed internationally through the adoption of various conventions & legal instruments. At the moment alone, there are nearly nine hundred international legal instruments either primarily directed to international environmental issues or containing important environmental law provisions.

Online Certificate Course on Mediation

Mediation is rapidly becoming the most preferred form of Alternative Dispute Resolution around the world and more and more organizations and individuals are choosing mediation over arbitration or litigation. A working knowledge of mediation, therefore, is fast becoming a necessity for lawyers who wish to be at the fore front in this unique field.
